Tribute to friendship

A stained glass window in the second-floor hallway of the Classroom Technology Center serves as a memorial to Jean Peddle, a 28-year Wartburg staff member who died Oct. 5, 1997, in a bicycle accident. At the time of her death, she was secretary to the vice president for administration and finance. Pictured, from left, are Bookstore manager Arlene Schwarzenbach, who spearheaded the memorial; Bookstore floor manager Ann Bock, who designed and created the window; Computer Services secretary Bonnie Graser, who carved rabbits on the frame; and retired athletic director John Kurtz '53, who mounted and framed the stained glass. Theme of the window is "To Have a Friend, You Must Be One."

He was elected to the position last summer at the group's national assembly in Chicago.

CASE membership includes more than 2,800 colleges, universities, and independent elementary and secondary schools, represented by more than 25,000 professionals in alumni relations, communications, and fund raising.

Waldstein serves on national group

Dr. Fredric Waldstein '74, Irving R. Burling chair in leadership and professor of political science, has been named to a 12-member national planning committee to develop a National Leadership Institute.

Koob to address terrorism in public session March 12

Kathryn Koob '62, who spent 16 months as a hostage at the American embassy in Iran, will present a public address at Wartburg Friday, March 12, on "Terrorism: America's New War." Her speech will begin at 4 p.m. in Neumann Auditorium.

The event ties in with the 20th anniversary year of Koob's ordeal, which began Nov. 4, 1979. She and 51 other Americans were freed 444 days later, minutes after the inauguration of President Ronald Reagan on Jan. 20, 1981. The next month, she returned to Wartburg to extinguish a vigil light on top of Old Main that had remained lit since the 100th day of her captivity.

Koob recently moved to Waverly after retiring from a career in government service. Her March appearance at Wartburg is part of a two-day event planned by the communication arts department. It will include the public address plus other sessions with students and prospective students.

More information is available from William Withers, department chair, phone 319-352-8570 or e-mail withers@wartburg.edu.

Former Choral director heads Artist Series

Alan J. Hagen, who recently retired after 38 years of choral music education in Iowa, is the new director of the Wartburg College Artist Series.

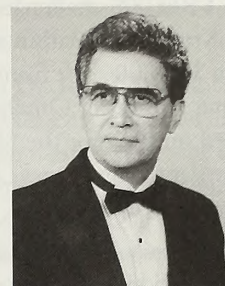

He succeeds Dr. Ronald Matthias, who is now serving as interim dean of the faculty.

"Alan Hagen brings a rich background in music to the directorship," said President Jack R. Ohle. "His willingness to serve the college and community in this manner is another indication of the strong support and mutual respect we have for each other."

Hagen is a graduate of Luther College and earned his master's degree at the University of Northern Iowa. He spent the last 34 years of his teaching career at Waverly-Shell Rock High School. His W-SR Chamber Choir made three European concert tours, appeared in New York City and Washington, D.C., regularly took top honors in state music competitions, and had one of the highest acceptance rates in the state for the Iowa All-State Choir.

A Hagen-directed choir was one of only two North American choral groups ever to win the top prize at the International Youth and Music Festival in Vienna, Austria.

In 1995, the Iowa Choral Directors recognized Hagen's distinguished career with the the Robert McGowen Award, the group's highest honor. A life member of the American Choral Directors Association, he continues to direct the Chancel Choir and the Bells of Praise handbell choir at St. Paul's Lutheran Church in Waverly.

Hagens become a Wartburg family

When Alan Hagen accepted the directorship of the Wartburg Artist Series, he joined two other members of his family at the college.

Hagen's wife, Patricia, and his son, John, are both adjunct voice instructors in the music department.

Patricia is also organist and director of music at St. Paul's Lutheran Church in Waverly and maintains a private studio in piano and voice. John sings professionally in addition to his teaching duties.

Matthias accepts interim post as dean of Wartburg faculty

Dr. Ronald Matthias '54, who retired in December 1996 as Wartburg's vice president for administration and finance, began work Sept. 1 as interim dean of the faculty and vice president for academic affairs.

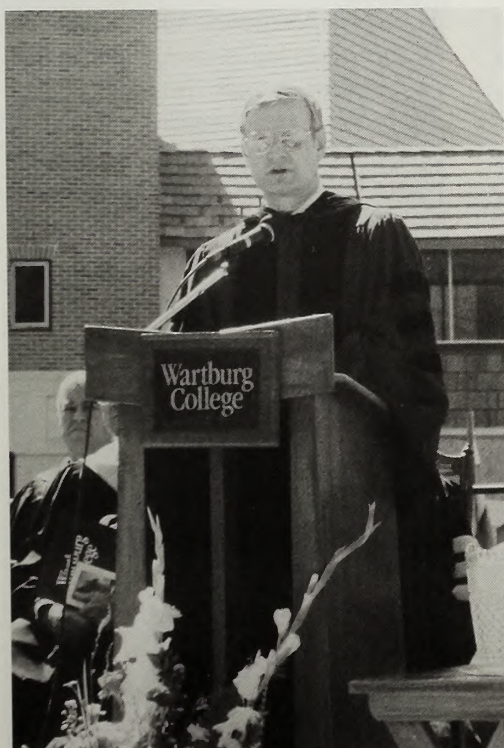

He assumed the position left vacant by the summer resignation of Dr. Mary Margaret Smith, who is now at the College of St. Catherine, St. Paul/ Minneapolis, Minn.

"Dr. Matthias brings to the interim position 28 years of experience at Wartburg, including five years as dean of the faculty," said President Jack R. Ohle in announcing the appointment. "His leadership will enable the college to move forward with its academic planning during this time of transition."

Matthias first came to Wartburg as a student. He taught in the Wartburg history department from 1959 to 1970, then served as dean of the faculty from 1970 to 1975. He directed the Division of College and University Services of The American Lutheran Church for eight years before returning to Wartburg in 1984.

After retiring in 1996, Matthias continued his association with Wartburg as head of the Artist Series, a position he relinquished this fall. He is also writing an updated history of the college for its 150th anniversary in 2002.

Major gifts add $600,000 to library funding

A $500,000 challenge grant from The Kresge Foundation of Troy, Mich., and a $100,000 gift from Gary and Donna Hoover of Omaha, Neb., have moved funding for the $8.7 million Robert and Sally Vogel Library a step closer to completion.

The Kresge Foundation grant, announced by foundation president John E. Marshall, III, requires the college to raise the remaining balance of funds—approximately $1.3 million—by Sept. 1, 1999. The grant also stipulates that all signed contract and projected costs be within the amount of resources available.

"We will use this grant to encourage Wartburg alumni and friends to contribute the remaining funds," said Wartburg President Jack R. Ohle. "The Board of Regents, faculty, staff, and students are grateful to the Kresge Foundation for its continued support of capital building projects. We appreciate the foundation's confidence in Wartburg College and its mission."

The Hoover gift comes from a couple with personal connections to the Waverly community.

ADDITION TAKES SHAPE—This October photo shows the outline of the new Robert and Sally Vogel Library. Workers will next remove the front wall of the existing building and envelope the area with plastic so that construction can continue through the winter months. Good fall weather has kept the project on target for a September 1999 opening.

"I've had my eye on Wartburg College for a long time," said Gary Hoover. "When you meet people you like and you know they're going to do good things, it makes you feel good to be able to contribute."

Hoover was born in Iowa and earned a bachelor's degree in mechanical engineering from Iowa State University, a master's degree in mechanical engineering from the University of Pittsburgh, and an M.B.A. degree from Santa Clara University. After working for Westinghouse for 20 years, he began his entrepreneurial career, first in Milwaukee and later in Omaha, where he formed a company to build and operate power plants. He retired in 1994.

"Wartburg College is very grateful to the Hoovers for their friendship and their gift," said the Rev. Al Koenen '55, vice president for development. "A significant gift like this from new friends like the Hoovers is encouraging, because it tells us we are on target in our own vision for the future."

A STREET RAN THROUGH IT—Until last summer, Tenth Street ran past the Wartburg library to the Knights Gym parking lot. The foundation of the Robert and Sally Vogel Library, foreground, now occupies the former street area, and Tenth Street ends at the Becker Hall of Science corner, above right. A second-story skyway will connect the new library to the northwest entrance of the Fine Arts Center, upper center.

Kresge Foundation grants support six Wartburg projects

Including its recent $500,000 grant for the Robert and Sally Vogel Library, The Kresge Foundation has supported six capital projects at Wartburg. Previous challenge grants were awarded for the Classroom Technology Center, Fine Arts Center, Whitehouse Business Center, Physical Education Center, and the original library.

Headquartered in Troy, Mich., the foundation is an independent, private foundation created by the personal gifts of Sebastian S. Kresge. It is not affiliated with any corporation or organization.

The organization awards grants toward projects involving construction or renovation of facilities and the purchase of major capital equipment or real estate. Grant recipients have raised initial funds toward their respective projects before requesting the foundation's assistance. Grants are then made on a challenge basis, requiring the institution to raise the remaining funds, thereby insuring completion of the projects.

In 1997, the foundation reviewed 610 proposals and awarded grants totaling $95,908, 521 to 180 charitable organizations in 37 states, the District of Columbia, Canada, and Mexico.

Leach Chair supports student fellowships

Both faculty and students benefit from Wartburg's James A. Leach Chair in Banking and Monetary Economics. The endowed chair supports a faculty position, now held by Dr. Rolf A. Craft, and funds Leach Fellowships for students.

The fellowships provide financial assistance for selected students to pursue a variety of learning experiences related to banking and finance.

Recipients of this year's fellowships were Scott Milburn '99 of Newton and Steve Meirink '99 of Apple Valley, Minn. Milburn attended a one-week banking school for professionals at the University of Iowa in June. Meirink spent a week during May Term visiting major financial institutions in New York City, including the stock exchange, the federal reserve, and a variety of banks.

According to Dr. Rolf Craft, holder of the Leach Chair, Leach Fellows are expected to share their experiences with other business students, the Wartburg community, and the banking community that provided the endowed chair.

The chair was established by a group of community bankers under the leadership of Charles City banker O. Jay Tomson. It is named after Iowa's First District U.S. Congressman James A. Leach, a member of the House Committee on Banking, Finance, and Urban Affairs and a ranking member of its Subcommittee on International Development, Finance, Trade, and Monetary Policy.

Religion professor publishes two books

► by Linda Moeller

Proof that Dr. Fred Strickert has never had to “dig” for material came this fall with the publication of not one, but two books by the Wartburg religion professor.

Strickert completed both books during 1995-96, when he spent a year-long sabbatical in Israel, destination for Wartburg's popular May Term course, Archaeology and the Bible. Since 1988, more than 200 students have participated in the course, which includes archaeological excavation at the ancient city of Bethsaida.

Now, Strickert's Bethsaida Home of the Apostles, tells the story of this city continuous story rather than being a collection of essays,” he notes. In it, he integrates ancient historical sources, archaeological discoveries, and geological research with the study of New Testament texts about this frequently mentioned city of Jesus.

“Bethsaida is in the forefront of archaeological exploration in the State of Israel,” says Strickert, who has been part of the project since it began.

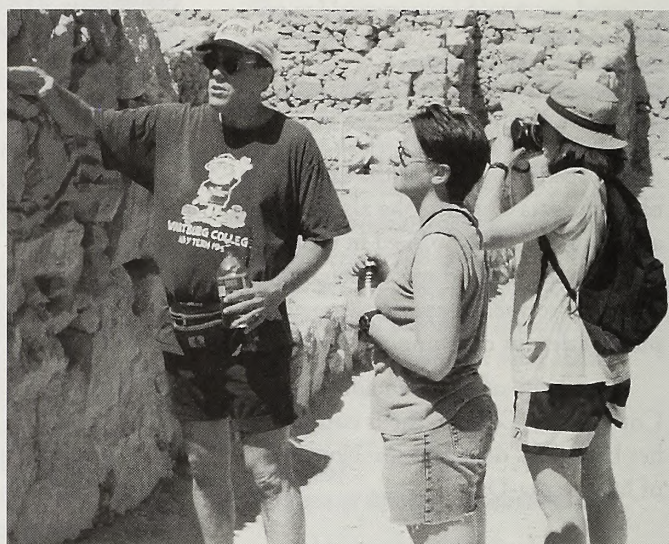

Spearheaded by Rami Arav, an Israeli who earned his Ph.D. in archaeology in the United States, excavation at Bethsaida began in May 1988. At the same time, Strickert was developing his May Term course, now co-led by Dr. Walter “Chip” Bouzard of the religion faculty.

“We lucked out because of May Term,” says Strickert. “We were the first group that did any organized digging at the site.”

Last May, the 10th anniversary of that first dig, Strickert and several students were interviewed at Bethsaida during filming for a British Broadcasting Company documentary called The Jesus Files, a four-part series investigating the life of Jesus.

“Hopefully the Arts and Entertainment network will pick it up so we'll be able to see it in the United States,” says Strickert.

Strickert will use his new book in the May Term course, and he thinks it may be popular with students who have already taken the course. The book received favorable pre-press reviews. Mark Appold of Truman State University called it “an absolute must for anyone interested in the origins of Christianity. With careful analysis, [Strickert] sorts through complex and diverse strands of literary traditions and connects them with the material finds that have come to light in the Bethsaida excavation.”

Strickert co-wrote his second book, Bethlehem 2000 Past and Present, with Mitri Raheb, pastor of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in Bethlehem. It was published this fall by Palmyra Publishing House, Heidelberg, Germany. The first new book on Bethlehem in the past 30 years, it is illustrated with 120 color photographs and texts. Palestinian leader Yassir Arafat wrote the foreword, and photography is by Garo Nalbandian.

“It's going to be a great coffee table book,” Strickert predicts, adding that it is also designed as a resource for Bethlehem tourists.

Between autumn 1999 and spring 2001, more than four million people are expected to visit this village of that was the home of several disciples of Jesus, including Simon Peter. The book was published in October by The Liturgical Press, Collegeville, Minn.

Strickert says he wrote it with a popular audience in mind. “It tells a

David, birthplace of Jesus, and the place where Jerome translated the Latin Vulgate Bible.

Strickert notes that Bethlehem was also designated a Muslim pilgrimage site by the Caliph Omar, making it a place held sacred by three religions: Judaism, Christianity, and Islam.

Strickert books available at Bookstore

Both of Dr. Fred Strickert's books are available through the Wartburg Bookstore.

Bethsaida Home of the Apostles, a paperback, sells for $19.95. Bethlehem 2000, a hardcover book, costs $24. Add $2.50 for postage and handling.

26 fall students studying off campus

Twenty-six Wartburg students are involved in off-campus programs this fall, according to Dr. Edith Waldstein '73, registrar and associate dean of the faculty.

Ten are enrolled in the Wartburg West program in Denver, Colo. Seven are in a Spanish Term Abroad at Puebla, Mexico. Three are involved in Venture Education in Ghana, West Africa, and two are enrolled in the Boston University London Internship Program.

Four students are in other locations, with one at Disneyland in Florida, one in a French Term Abroad in Cannes, France, one at Beaver College in Central America, and one at Beaver College in Lancaster, England.

Enrollment hits new high this fall

Wartburg's 1998 Fall Term enrollment of 1,541 set a new record for the third consecutive year, topping last year's total by 13.

The college also set new records for most full-time students, 1,462, and highest full-time equivalency, 1,499, a category that factors in part-time students.

Wartburg also attracted a record pool of 1,647 applicants. According to admissions director Doug Bowman, the college for the first time in its history went to a wait list in June to prevent overcrowding facilities.

This year's 456 new students include 406 full-time first-year students, 48 full-time transfer students, and two part-time transfer students. Seventy-two percent of the new students are Regents or Presidential Scholars.

The college enrolled 113 American ethnic students (7 percent of the student body) and 75 international students (5 percent) from 30 countries.

The majority of the students, 1,052, come from Iowa. Other states contributing significant numbers of students are Minnesota (111), Illinois (78) and Wisconsin (60). All told, there are 27 states represented on campus.

The five largest majors on campus are business administration (213), biology (203), elementary education (175), music education/music therapy (118) and communication arts (95).

This year's student body includes 426 first-year students (some students enrolled in January last year and are still classified as first-year), 361 second-year students, 368 third-year students and 333 fourth-year students. There also are 53 special students.

Wartburg ranked for 12th consecutive year

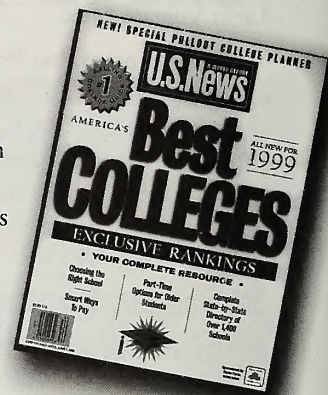

For the 12th consecutive year, Wartburg made U.S. News & World Report's listing of the country's best liberal arts colleges.

Wartburg was one of 162 national liberal arts colleges cited in the magazine's 1998 Best Colleges survey. "National liberal arts colleges" are defined as institutions that focus almost exclusively on undergraduate degrees and award at least 40 percent of their degrees in liberal arts disciplines.

"Recognition by U.S. News & World Report for 12 consecutive years affirms the quality of Wartburg's faculty and the strengths of our academic programs," said President Jack R. Ohle. "Wartburg offers students a distinctive educational opportunity that is marked by excellence."

U.S. News bases rankings on seven criteria:

- 1 ACADEMIC REPUTATION, based on a survey of presidents, provosts and deans of admission at colleges in the same category.
- 2 RETENTION, indicating the school's level of student satisfaction.
- 3 FACULTY RESOURCES, indicating the school's commitment to superb instruction and student interaction with faculty.
- 4 STUDENT SELECTIVITY, helping measure the school's academic climate.
- 5 FINANCIAL RESOURCES, based on the average spending per student over the past two years on instruction, research, public service, academic support, student services, institutional support, and operations and maintenance.
- 6 ALUMNI GIVING, indicating alumni satisfaction with the college.
- 7 GRADUATION RATE PERFORMANCE, designed to capture the effect of the college's programs and policies on the student graduation rate.

Part of Wartburg Hall returns

The Ionic columns and triangular pediment from the front entry of Wartburg Hall are standing on campus once again as a tribute to the college's first residence hall for women. Erected this fall, the monument is located just east of the Whitehouse Business Center on the former Wartburg Hall site. It includes a plaque with a photo and short history of the structure, which was built in 1913 and razed in 1983.

Lutheran Brotherhood matches 481 gifts

Lutheran Brotherhood provided $38,610 in matching gifts to Wartburg during the first two quarters of 1998.

The funds match 481 gifts of $25 to $100 made by Lutheran Brotherhood members to Wartburg through the company's IMPACT/IMPACT Plus (Inviting Member Participation in Aiding Lutheran College and Theological Seminaries) program. Since the program began in 1979, Wartburg has received a total of $851,328.

Campus Ministry adds new hymnal

Wartburg's Campus Ministry Board is seeking donations for new hymnals. Cost of each With One Voice book is $10. Book plates will be inserted in each hymnal and inscribed with the donor's dedication. Checks should be sent to Wartburg College Campus Ministry, along with the donor's name and the person's name to whom the hymnal is dedicated.

1997-98 Annual Report

June 1997 through May 1998

The Annual Report covers gifts to Wartburg College from June 1, 1997, through May 31, 1998. The college deeply appreciates each and every gift from alumni, parents, friends, faculty, staff, and students. Large or small, capital, annual, or deferred, these gifts sustain the vision and support the mission of Wartburg College. Through your gifts, Wartburg dares to be distinctive in preparing graduates to move into a wide spectrum of positions where they excel professionally and provide leadership and service in their communities.

We rely on our computer to compile the names of contributors. If you discover an error, please accept our apologies and let us know, so we can set the records straight! Thank you.

1997-98 Annual Report

Compiled by the Wartburg College Development Office,
222 Ninth St. N.W., P.O. Box 1003, Waverly, IA 50677-0903,

Chairman's Message

The past year has been a time of both change and continuity for Wartburg College.

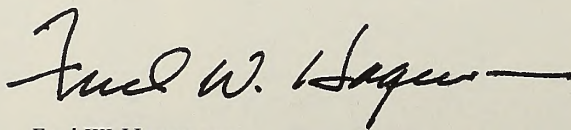

Last fall, when President Vogel announced his intention to retire, many of us wondered what a change in leadership would mean for the college. During the months that followed, the Board of Regents, along with the entire Wartburg community, devoted considerable attention and energy to the process of finding a new president who could build on our strengths and move Wartburg to new heights.

We are very happy with the result of our search. In May, the Board of Regents elected Jack R. Ohle as Wartburg's 15th president. He officially took office on July 1. Already, the signs of President Ohle's experience, enthusiasm, and vision are becoming apparent.

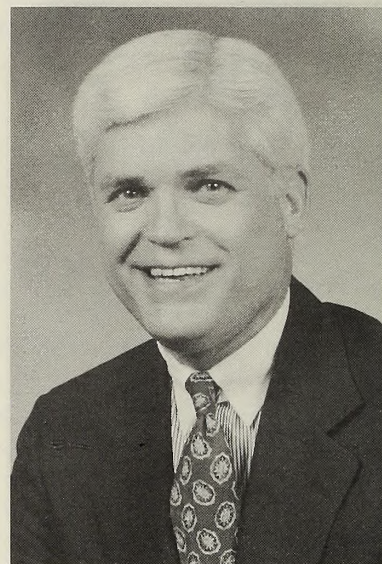

In the midst of this major transition, the college has gone about its business, continuing to carry out its mission. Plans for the new library were approved, and construction has begun. Classes have been taught, athletic contests played out, and concerts performed. Students have been challenged to discover new things about themselves and the world, preparing them for lives of leadership and service.

Support for the college continues to be strong. As this annual report indicates, 1997-98 was another exceptional year.

With new leadership and a strong foundation of support from our alumni and many friends, Wartburg College can approach the future with confidence.

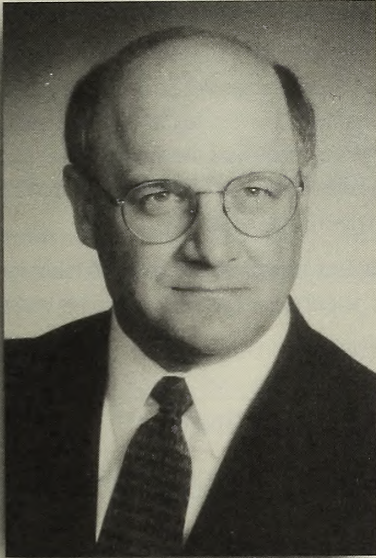

Fred W. Hagemann
Chair, Board of Regents

President's Message

Dear Alumni and Friends of Wartburg College,

This annual report reviews the many successes and accomplishments of the past year. I am especially encouraged by the significant support Wartburg receives from our many constituents—alumni and friends who recognize the value of a Wartburg education and the special strengths we have as a college of the church. Clearly, this is a college that has earned widespread respect and affection.

I want to personally thank President Robert Vogel for the strong leadership he provided over the past 18 years. This report is a snapshot of his last year as president, and the current strengths of the college are a result of his work.

I am honored to now serve as your president.

In 2002, we will celebrate our sesquicentennial—the 150th anniversary of Wartburg's founding. Over the past century-and-a-half, Wartburg has existed in various locations and has served thousands of students. We must remain committed to build on the college's proud heritage and rich history.

Together, we will achieve new heights and develop exciting plans for the future—plans for new facilities, for new learning opportunities, and for new ways of meaningfully involving alumni and friends in the life and work of the college.

Thank you for the support you have provided Wartburg College. I look forward to your continuing partnership in the months and years ahead.

Jack R. Ohle
President

WARTBURG COLLEGE

Heritage Club

Heritage Club membership is offered to alumni, parents, and friends who make future provision for Wartburg as part of their estate plans. More than 970 individuals representing over 600 family units now belong. Documented future provisions for the college by Heritage Club members exceed $27 million.

Heritage Club continues to be a major factor in building the college endowment. Endowment secures Wartburg's future by providing support for quality education, a strong faculty, and scholarships, attracting qualified students, and supporting facilities, programs, and technology.

You can make a difference for Wartburg now and in the future by joining this group of committed individuals. Simply inform us that you have made future provision for Wartburg College. If you prefer a visit, let us know.

A Heritage Club brochure with a membership enrollment form is available from the Development Office. Phone: 319-352-8490, e-mail: nelson @ wartburg.edu

Tower Club

The Tower Club recognizes alumni, parents, and friends of the college who provide $100 or more to Wartburg's Annual Giving program. Priorities for annual support in 1997-98 included scholarships, campus technology, and facilities that allow Wartburg to offer an enriching academic and residential experience. Annual gifts support special initiatives and provide a dependable stream of income to support the opportunities for students that are critical to Wartburg's distinctiveness and excellence. It would take an additional $23 million in endowment to replace the revenues your annual gift provides the college each year.

The Stalwarts

Wartburg's continuing ability to provide students with the opportunity to explore possibilities and make learning an adventure is made possible by many alumni, parents, and friends who have been steadfast in their support. We are proud to highlight for special acknowledgement The Stalwarts—those alumni, parents, and friends who gave a gift this year and have also given annual support to Wartburg for the past 10 years. We also recognize other Stalwarts, those whose cumulative gifts to Wartburg range from $10,000 to $49,999.

Alumni

To the alumni whose names appear in this report, we say thank you. One of the marks of a distinctive college is the percentage of alumni who contribute annual support for the college's mission and vision. At Wartburg, the roll of alumni includes those who have attended the college for at least one year. In 1997-98, 20 percent of former-student alumni and 35 percent of graduates provided support for the college.

The roll of alumni donors on the following pages includes the amount contributed by each class. Alumni gifts for 1997-98 totalled $1,181,302.74. With your continuing support, we will achieve and sustain our goal of 40 percent annual alumni participation.

Parents

Wartburg parents are a key to the college's future. In addition to their financial assistance, parents also provide the college with students, and they are effective in telling the Wartburg story.

Wartburg College thanks parents for their loyalty and participation. "Once a Wartburg parent, always a Wartburg parent." Your interest and support are appreciated. Parent gifts for 1997-98 totalled $657,966.79.

* Company matching gift funds were received in addition to the donors contribution.

Another prank on the Norse, of course

KWAR staff crashes Luther parade

► by Linda Moeller

In the latest chapter of the Wartburg-Luther rivalry, members of KWAR-FM radio station not only infiltrated the Luther College Homecoming parade, but they did a live broadcast of the entire escapade as well.

The station, which airs on the 89.1 frequency and calls itself "The ONE," now boasts that it's "The ONE for College Pranks." Station manager Jay Boeding '99 of West Union said it was the second consecutive year KWAR has pulled off a clandestine operation at Luther.

Last year, posing as a church youth group from La Crosse, Wis., staff members got a campus tour, a free lunch, and free tickets to the Wartburg-Luther football game. During the tour, they surreptitiously left KWAR bumper stickers throughout the campus.

After learning of the hoax, Luther officials billed the Wisconsin church for the students' expenses, and Boeding happily picked up the tab.

"The Luther students were good sports about it."

—Jay Boeding '99,

KWAR-FM station manager

This year, the Wartburg-Luther football game Oct. 17 coincided with the Norse Homecoming. Admittedly influenced by the college movie classic, Animal House, KWAR staffers decided to enter a float in the Luther parade. Passing themselves off as the

Organization of Nature Enthusiasts (ONE) from Lanesboro, Minn., they got permission to participate in the parade and even notified the mayor of Lanesboro, who agreed to verify their status in case someone from Luther called his office.

On a drizzly fall Saturday, the KWAR entourage took a minivan and a cellular phone to Decorah, where they had arranged for a trailer to be waiting. They decorated the trailer, donned Luther clothes, put Luther signs on the van, took their place in the parade, and began a live broadcast, via cell phone, to the folks back in Waverly.

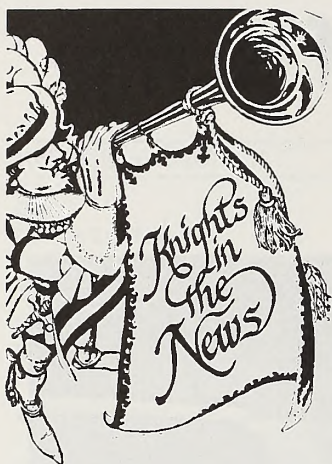

When the float reached the parade observation stand, where Luther radio station KWLC was broadcasting, the students "cut the cake," a la Animal

House. They ripped off their Luther clothes to reveal Wartburg orange and black, they hauled out Wartburg signs, and they tore the Luther signs off the van. Boeding said about 40 Wartburg students who were at the parade—and reportedly even some alumni—eventually fell in step behind the float. They joined the KWAR staff in yelling Wartburg slogans and distributing orange and black candy kisses to the pro-Norse crowd.

Although some observers registered disapproval and the float got its share of boos, the incident provoked no trouble. "The Luther students were good sports about it," said Boeding. "They congratulated us and were laughing."

For those who missed the live broadcast, KWAR aired a replay several times in the week following the parade. Channel 13, Wartburg's cable access channel, also included video highlights of the prank on its weekly news program.

Ph.D. alumni meet over post-hole digger

It was the quintessential Wartburg small-world encounter. Two alumni who had never met discovered their common bonds while working on a community service project.

Dr. Alan Rudie '73 and Dr. Stephen DeWeerth '85 were volunteers for a workday at a wildlife habitat near Atlanta, Ga.

"The project was to rebuild an outdoor demonstration table and add a few more benches to the habitat amphitheater/outdoor classroom," said Rudie, who related the story during an October visit to campus for his 25-year class reunion.

Rudie and DeWeerth ended up working an auger to dig holes for the bench and table legs, made from telephone poles. As they worked and visited, Rudie discovered that DeWeerth was an associate professor of electrical and computer engineering at the Georgia Institute of Technology in Atlanta.

"This, of course, was a good start," said Rudie, associate professor of chemistry and senior research scientist at the Institute of Paper Science and Technology, which is located on the Georgia Tech campus. Further conversation revealed that DeWeerth had earned his bachelor's degree from "a small liberal arts college in Iowa."

"This becomes the typical response for someone with a degree from Wartburg once you leave the Midwest," Rudie noted. "Otherwise, one often gets stuck giving both a geography lesson (Where is Iowa?) and a history lesson (What is Wartburg?)."

Rudie and DeWeerth soon learned they had both graduated from the same small liberal arts college—Wartburg—and that they were both double majors in chemistry and mathematics. Both had taken chemistry courses from Dr. David Hampton and Dr. Warren Zemke and math courses from Dr. William Waltmann '56 and Dr. August Waltmann '64.

Rudie went to graduate school at Massachusetts Institute of Technology, where he earned a Ph.D. in chemistry in 1978. DeWeerth went the opposite direction in 1985, enrolling at California Institute of Technology, where he completed an M.S. degree in computer science in 1987 and a Ph.D. in computation and neural systems in 1991.

"In the small-world department, here were two scientists, both Wartburg graduates, who wound up working at the same campus in Atlanta and were now standing two feet apart operating a PHD (post-hole digger) in Marietta, Ga.," said Rudie.

Connecting generations

FRANK WILLIAMS FAMILY FLUTE/ORCHESTRA SCHOLARSHIP
Amanda Haes '99 and Dr. Franklin Williams, professor emeritus

Like the scholarship donors and recipients who met at last spring's Wartburg Scholars Luncheon, you can make connections across generations by funding a Wartburg College scholarship.

More than 350 families, individuals, and organizations have discovered the rewards of investing in students. At the same time, many of them have established a permanent memorial to a family member, respected professor, or friend.

You can join the ranks of these scholarship donors by funding an annually funded or endowed scholarship. For more details, contact the Wartburg College Development Office, 222 Ninth St. N.W., Waverly, Iowa 50677-0903. Phone 319-352-8495 or e-mail Koeneman@wartburg.edu.

Donors Affirm Value of Wartburg Scholarships

"For me, endowing a scholarship has been a way to make a lasting contribution to Wartburg College, a way of expressing my appreciation for the wonderful experience I had as a student."

— Sue Marie Rendall '73, Almond, Wis.

"I am proud to have established the Brunell F. and Helen M. Kehrli Scholarship. My goals in endowing the scholarship were to help students obtain a quality, liberal arts education and to honor my parents—and to do both in a way that would have some permanency."

— Dean Kehrli '69, Springfield, Mo.
